

District Commander Elections and Qualifications

As we approach our Spring/Summer District Conferences, it is important to review the qualifications needed for District Commanders in our upcoming elections.

If You have thoughts of running, which I encourage You to do, please ensure You are qualified for the position.

Necessary Skills to be Competent at This Job

- Be computer literate
- Be available to travel and visit Posts and attend District Conferences, Mid-Winter, & Summer Conference
- Set attainable goals and evaluate them and carry them to fruition
- Graduate of Basic Training (ALEI)
- <https://www.legion.org/alei>
- Administer and monitor your Districts membership data through MyLegion and Personify. WEEKLY www.mylegion.org
- Have a working knowledge of multi-media communications i.e., Face Book, Website, Zoom, Free Conference Call and Teams...etc.
<https://www.freeconferencecalling.com/>
- Use your Vice Commanders as necessary to assist You with Team cohesion
- Have the ability to identify, motivate, and mentor individuals to assist and replace You as You move up
- Use incentives for your Posts to achieve membership goals at the National and Department level <https://www.legion.org/membership/awards>
- Personal goal to attend American Legion College
- Attend all Department-level meetings/conferences

For God and Country

Kevin Caldwell
Commander
Department of Arkansas
American Legion